Learn more about
MIDDLE SCHOOL AT HILLCREST ACADEMY

Like parents, we understand how important it is for students to be at a place where they feel known and loved, while forming their identity and learning to embrace their unique talents and interests. We are excited about the opportunity to accommodate younger students through the mission of our school.

The MIDDLE SCHOOL of HILLCREST ACADEMY will seek to share the love of Jesus in a collaborative, joyful learning environment where all students are known and loved. Beginning in the 2023-24 school year, through a variety of rigorous learning experiences, our two teachers BETH SWANTZ '81 and MEGAN WALSH, will lead 24 6th grade students to grow their self-confidence, express themselves and experience a deep sense of belonging. Learn more at hillcrestravens.org/middle-school.

As we prepare to welcome these students onto our campus next year, we continue to do the necessary things needed to make their experience what it should be. We have two Amazon Wish Lists set up, which you can use to help support our middle school. You can make your purchase and everything will get delivered to the school. It's that easy! Find the lists at hillcrestravens.org/amazonwishlist.

ABOUT THE COVER

Wilbur Yoder through the years. Clockwise: Wilbur's senior photo from 1962. His class had 52 members and tuition was $200. In 1973, Wilbur returned to his alma mater as a teacher and guidance counselor. Along with those roles, Wilbur also coached cross country for nine years. Here he is with his 1981 team with the school's first State Champion, Marty Gingerich '81. In 1989, Wilbur became the school's ninth principal. Wilbur in 2007, addressing the students in his last year as principal.

A LIVING LEGACY

WILBUR YODER grew up on a farm west of the Iowa Mennonite School, now Hillcrest Academy. After four years at Eastern Mennonite College in Harrisonburg, Virginia, he worked in Cleveland's inner city, before returning to Iowa. A 1962 graduate of IMS, Wilbur returned to his alma mater in the fall of 1973.

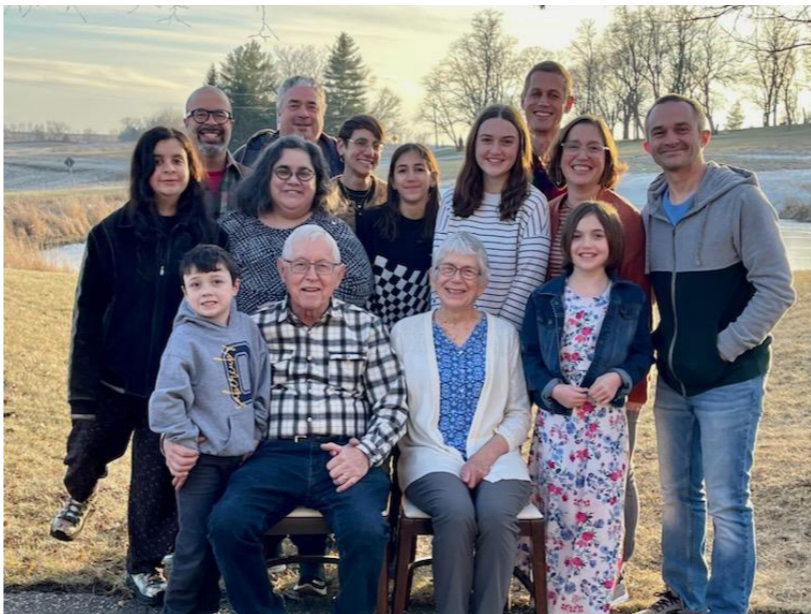

At IMS, Wilbur taught courses in Christian Family Living, served as guidance counselor, and took charge of boarding students, many of whom came to Iowa through High Aim, the program he had been a part of while in Cleveland. He was also an instructor in Math, Bible, Photography, and Psychology, along with coaching cross country for nine years. In 1989, Wilbur became the ninth principal in the school's 44 year history.

According to Frank Yoder's book Opening A Window to the World, it was this experience and his familiarity with both the local community and inner city settings that made his time at IMS so instrumental in bridging the gap between students from all backgrounds and worldviews. His counseling experience also gave him a unique perspective on high school students and the problems they encounter. It was this understanding of community and his commitment to interpersonal relationships that seasoned his administrative approach. His opinion was to "develop disciples and teach young people to follow Jesus Christ. That is not limited to just one group."

Wilbur led IMS through numerous milestones and events, including the school's 50th anniversary in 1995 and the school's most ambitious building project, The Exceptional Endeavour Campaign. The $6M project included a new auditorium, Celebration Hall, classroom additions, the installation of an elevator, and various other improvements.

Wilbur retired as principal in 2007 after 33 years of employment at IMS. Add that to the four years he was a student, he has impacted the lives of over 1,650 students and 215 faculty/staff. That doesn't even take into account the numbers of parents, grandparents, and community members also involved. Wilbur and his wife, Helen, have four children: Chad '89, Melanie '90, Anthony '93, Annette '98, and many grandchildren.

To recognize and honor Wilbur and Helen's years of dedicated, exemplary service to IMS/Hillcrest, the atrium between Celebration Hall and Hillcrest Union will be named the WILBUR & HELEN YODER ATRIUM. The official naming will take place on August 17, 2023, as part of an open house for the new Middle School. Further details will be forthcoming as plans are finalized, but the public is invited to attend and celebrate Wilbur and Helen along with their classmates, family, and friends.
